
“Active People are Happy People ”

We believe that the true essence of a retirement community is not the concrete, mortar and steel of which it is constructed but the hearts that beat within its walls. Our resident Civic Club invites and encourages residents’ participation and choice in events, activities, and more.

Everyone should have something to look forward to each and every day. The choices are endless when you live at Kirkland Union Plaza.

Resident Services Coordinator

We offer a Resident Services Coordinator to help with networking residents’ community based services. Our residents and their families find this service extremely helpful when outside services are needed.

Management Philosophy

Union Labor Retirement Association proudly manages and develops elderly housing for residents from all walks of life. We are happy to offer safe, sound, comfortable, affordable living - free from daily concerns.

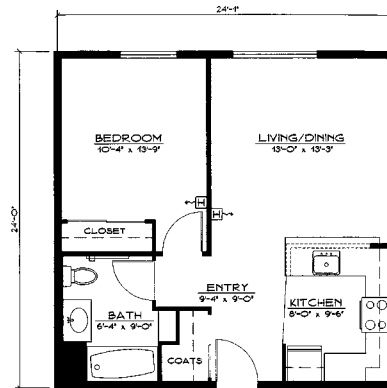

The Union Labor Retirement Association

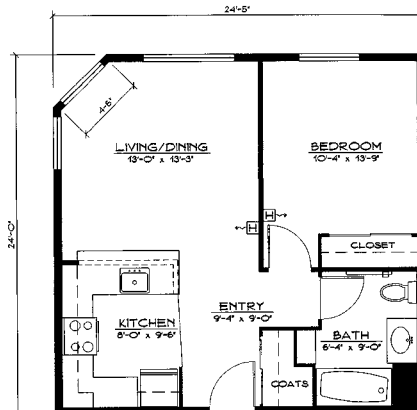

Labor Leaders in the Portland & Vancouver Building Trade Movement organized the Union Labor Retirement Association (ULRA) in 1962 with the sole purpose of providing housing for the elderly. Their dream has been realized as six Union Manors. One of which is Kirkland Union Plaza opening in March of 2002.

As a Non-Profit Corporation, our sole reason for existence is our residents.

Kirkland Union Plaza is a beautiful new senior community in Vancouver, Washington which offers contemporary comfort. Bring your favorite furniture, books, treasures, hobbies - whatever you wish. We believe that retirement should be a time when you enjoy life's pleasures large and small. Why spend all your time, energy, and money on home repairs, maintenance, and yard work. Focus on what matters - children, grandchildren, traveling, hobbies, or anything else you've put off learning or doing because you were too busy.

We believe that everyone should have something to look forward to each day, whether it's participation in the many activities and groups or the serenity of knowing you are comfortable and snug in your own apartment.

*“We believe that everyone
earns the right to retire, free from pressures
of earlier years.”*
