The definition of a disabled person includes a person who meets any one of the following criteria:

- Has a physical, mental, or emotional impairment that:
 1. Is expected to be of long-continued and indefinite duration;
 2. Substantially impedes his or her ability to live independently, and;
 3. Is of such a nature that ability to live independently could be improved by more suitable housing conditions.

- OR -

- Has a disability as defined in Sec. 223 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 423):

"Inability to engage in any substantial, gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or which has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than 12 months," or

"In the case of an individual who has attained the age of 55 and is blind and unable by reason of such blindness to engage in substantial, gainful activity requiring skills of ability comparable to those of any gainful activity in which he has previously engaged with some regularity and over a substantial period of time."
